“BECO IS ENGAGING AND KNOWLEDGEABLE—JUST WHAT YOU WANT IN A FACILITATOR”

~Leandro G., Business Development,
Africa, Middle East & Netherlands, Burger King Corporation

Beco Lichtman (he/him)—a highly-skilled Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion consultant and facilitator—helps your organization increase performance, strengthen human connection, and promote an inclusive culture where everyone can feel respected, valued, and supported to achieve their fullest potential.

Shifting workplace culture isn't easy. You need someone who can lead transformational learning programs to bridge gaps and spark engagement. Someone who can activate measurable and sustainable change. This is what Beco brings to your business—whether facilitating a workshop or developing a strategic initiative for your organization. Popular topics have included: Inclusive Leadership, How to Create More Inclusive Workplaces Through Artificial Intelligence, LGBTQ+ and BIPOC Inclusion, and Measuring the Impact of ESG (Environmental, Social, Governance) Initiatives.

In addition to being a facilitator and consultant, he's a catalyst for systemic organizational change, transformational leadership, and the empowerment of underrepresented voices in the workplace and beyond.

Beco, a French-American, was born and raised in the United States and has spent half of his adult life living in the UK, Spain, and France. This experience provides him with the cultural intelligence required to help multinational organizations implement inclusive policies.

Today, he resides in Paris, France with his husband, and provides a variety of services both in-person and virtually to clients internationally.

He holds a BA in English Literature and an MBA from Florida International University.
